Commissioner & Mrs. Jack Cagle

Growing up, Jack Cagle's grandfather often reminded him he came from a family of judges. Cagle's grandfather even nicknamed his grandson "Cactus Jack" after Jack Garner, the former vice president who served in all three branches of government. Jack Cagle has spent 30 years working with and serving the citizens of Harris County Precinct 4 as an attorney, elected judge, and county commissioner. He has received numerous awards from legal, business, political, and community groups. Commissioner Cagle is a graduate of Rice University with triple majors in economics, history, and managerial studies, as well as a graduate of Baylor Law School.

More important than all the accolades are his family, Jack and Janet Cagle have celebrated 37 years of marriage and have three children; Richard, a Wildlife Manager, Victoria, recent college graduate, and Elizabeth, an aspiring doctor finishing her senior year in high school. They have served together at Second Baptist Church Cypress Campus since 2008. Commissioner Cagle enjoys family time, the outdoors, classical literature and playing his bass guitar. Janet enjoys cooking, her reading club and spending time with her family and friends. In addition, they are currently raising a 90-pound Cur hunting dog "Tai" and fostering his mother a 45-pound Black-mouthed Cur "Ladybug".
